PEACE PROSPECT HAS BRIGHTENED

Guatemala Will Cease Hostilities if Other Belligerents Will Do Likewise.

Salvador and Honduras Said to Have Entered into an Alliance to Dictate Terms of Peace to Be Proposed by Two Countries to Guatemala.

Washington.—The latest developments in the late outbreak in South America is an assurance to the state department from President Cabrera that Guatemala would refrain from further hostilities if Salvador would undertake to do the same, which news was promptly communicated to Minister Merry at San Salvador in order that he might transmit the proposition to the government at that place.

Another point developed was that Salvador and Honduras had entered into an alliance, the nature of which is not certainly known, but it is believed by the officials here that the purpose is to agree upon the terms of peace that shall be proposed by the two countries to Guatemala. This news came to the state department from Charge Brown at Guatemala City. Still another cablegram, this one from Minister Merry, informed the state department that the government of Honduras insisted upon being considered along with Salvador in the peace negotiations with Guatemala. Altogether, the prospect of the peaceful termination of the present difficulty is believed to have brightened considerably.

VISITED BY EARTHQUAKE.

New Mexico and Texas Are Shaken Up, But No One Hurt.

El Paso, Tex.—A distinct earthquake shock was felt here at 11:50 a. m. Monday. Buildings rocked and swayed and many people fled to the streets. The thermometers and instruments in the weather bureau in the federal building swung back and forth for several minutes. No damage was done.

Santa Fe.—Considerable property damage was done Monday afternoon at Socorro, San Marcial and nearby settlements by an earthquake shock, which was the severest of the 200 shocks that have occurred in that part of New Mexico during the past two years. The shocks are local and are caused by earth slides in the Magdalena mountains.

MOTHER SECURES COUNSEL.

Reliance Will Be Placed on Pleas of Insanity.

New York.—Immediately following her interview with her son, Harry K. Thaw, in the Tombs on Monday, Mrs. William Thaw assumed full charge of the defense and arranged to retain the services as counsel of the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonnyne, who were dismissed by young Thaw a few days ago. This action is taken to mean that Harry Thaw's desires and opinions regarding the defense will be ignored and that reliance will be placed on the plea of insanity, insistence on which by Mr. Olcott resulted in the rupture between himself and his client.

Chicago Couple Tires of Living and End Their Lives.

Chicago.—Edward F. Kloss and his wife, who conducted a small millinery store, were found dead in the rooms above the store. The throats of Kloss and his wife had been cut, they both had been shot through the head and blood was splattered on the floor and on the furniture. A letter was found which had been written by Kloss in which he said that he and his wife were tired of living and had decided to take their lives.

Convicted Rebaters Have Not Lost All Hope.

Chicago.—Judge Peter S. Grosscup in the United States circuit court on Monday granted the Chicago & Alton Railway company, J. N. Falthorn and Fred A. Wann writs of supersedeas staying the execution of a fine aggregating $50,000 assessed against the defendants a short time ago by Judge Landis of the United States district court on charges of granting illegal rebates to the Schwarzhild & Sulzberger packing corporation.

Britons Are Shocked Over Slaughter of Zulus.

London.—Premier Campbell-Bannerman, replying to a question in the house of commons, said the government has already made telegraphic inquiries regarding the reported refusal to grant quarter to wounded Zulus as announced in a dispatch from Johannesburg Monday. The premier said he had been greatly shocked by the report. If there was any foundation for it the matter would receive the closest and most earnest attention of the government.

Powder Mill Blows Up.

Ashland, Wis.—A powder mill several miles from this city blew up Monday, killing three men. Twenty were injured. The dead are: J. L. Pierce, superintendent of the mill; William Wallace, laborer; George Woodside. The neutralizing plant was totally destroyed. The mill was owned by the Atlantic Dynamite company and there were twenty-five buildings in the group. The shock was terrific and broke many windows in Ashland.

SAN FRANCISCO RAPIDLY RISING FROM ITS RUINS

Mechanics of All Kinds in the Building Trades Are Needed in Order to Rebuild the City.

San Francisco.—San Francisco is arising from its ashes with a rapidity that surprises all, and building is progressing on all sides. The labor situation is exciting much interest and inquiry and the California promotion committee, after careful investigation and conference with the employers and employees, through the building trades council with which all building trades artisans are affiliated, and the builders' exchange and builders' association representing the employers, contractors and material men, has ascertained that in all trades except the building trades the demand is fully supplied with one exception, ordinary laborers, several thousand such men being in immediate demand for railway construction and debris removal. In the building trades conditions are entirely different. Mechanics are needed in all departments of the building industry, particularly in the following trades: Plumbers, electrical workers, gas and electric fixture hangers, hod-carriers, bricklayers, cement workers, bridge and structural iron workers, architectural iron workers, plasterers, lathers, carpenters, sheet metal workers and elevator constructors.

NEGROES RUN OUT OF TOWN.

Citizens of Louisiana Town Clean Out "Hole-in-the-Wall" Gang.

New Orleans.—The work of a remarkable city house cleaning party which placed 150 negro men and women on board a passenger train at Lake Charles, La., and shipped them out of the town and parish is told in dispatches to the Picayune. They were placed on no name train with the body of a negro who shot and killed the city marshal of Jennings, La., and who subsequently died in jail at Lake Charles from wounds received while attempting to avoid arrest. Shortly before midnight the negro tenebrous known as the "Hole-in-the-Wall" was invaded by several hundred white men, including some members of the state militia on their way to the United States encampment. The dispatch says:

"Houses after house was visited and the inmates, not even being given time to dress, were taken out and turned over to a guard. The mob group was marched under guard of pistol to a water tank about a mile from town, a passenger train was stopped and the negroes put aboard and their fares paid as far as the parish line, members of the guard riding that far with them. Some of the negro women were shipped away in their night gowns."

LOWER HOUSE IS JUBILANT.

Council of the Russian Empire Accepts Famine Relief Bill.

St. Petersburg.—The council of the empire's acceptance without amendment of parliament's bill appropriating $7,500,000 for famine relief, came as a surprise but has occasioned the greatest jubilation in the camp of the lower house, as it is regarded as a vote of lack of confidence in the Goremirkin ministry on the part of the upper chamber. While many speeches in the council of the empire really favored the adoption of the cabinet's recommendation, they recognized that it would be a fatal mistake for the council to antagonize the lower house in the present crisis. Moreover, those on the inside who were aware that the negotiations between the government and the constitutional democrats were entering the final stage were naturally influenced by coming events.

Missionary Killed on Board British Steamer in China.

Hongkong.—The British steamer Salinan was attacked by Chinese pirates Saturday evening at a point fifty miles from Wu Chow. The Rev. Dr. McDonald was shot and killed. The captain of the steamer was badly wounded and the Chinese boarded the ship by hiding behind the boilers. He was, however, badly burned. A Chinese passenger was also killed. The pirates escaped in junks. H. M. S. Moorhan has left for the scene.

Great Crowds Watch Bull Fight.

San Diego, Cal.—Four bulls were killed Sunday, after making a game fight, in the Tia Juana arena in the presence of 1000 spectators, about one-fifth of whom were from Los Angeles. The killing of the last bull was rather a sickening incident, six thrusts being necessary to dispose of him. A feature of the day was El Cucu's clever pole trick. Provoking one of the bulls to rush at him, and just as the animal was almost upon him, he stuck the pole into the ground before the bull and vaulted clear over him.

Two Women Drowned.

Oregon City, Ore.—Mrs. Mary Parks and Miss Annie Hartman, both of Portland, were drowned in the Willamette river Sunday afternoon while bathing in front of Magone's park, one mile north of here. Mr. Parks and L. S. Dodge, the other member of the party, made a vain attempt to rescue Miss Hartman and had a narrow escape. Mrs. Parks, who was in a place of safety near shore, was half carried with excitement and ventured out to the aid of her husband and friends and was drowned.

Murdered in Their Beds.

Winston-Salem, N. C.—Isaac Lyerty, his wife and three youngest children, were murdered in their home one mile east of Barber's Junction during the night by robbers, who then, after looting the house, set fire to the bed on which Mr. and Mrs. Lyerty lay. Two older daughters who were sleeping upstairs were awakened and rushed down just in time to extinguish the flames before serious damage had been done. It is thought that the robbers killed their victims with clubs.

DECLARES WAR ON GUATEMALA

Honduras Joins San Salvador in Attack Upon Neighbor on the West.

Central America Again in a State of Revolution, After Five Years of Planning and Work by Discontented Ones—Nicaragua May Also Join In.

Panama.—A telegram received here from San Salvador says that Honduras has declared war against Guatemala. According to this same message the following proclamation has been circulated in Salvador:

"General Bonilla, commander of the Salvadoran army, has repelled the Guatemalan forces at Matapana, in Salvador, ten miles east of the Guatemalan frontier. The victorious army of Salvador retained the positions captured from the enemy."

The declaration of war by Honduras on Guatemala, brings a third state actively into the Central American trouble which has been progressing with more or less severe fighting and bloodshed for a month or more. Honduras and Salvador are now arrayed against their neighbor on the west. Nicaragua and Costa Rica are the only two countries still passive and it has been said the former is about to take part in the fighting.

The present trouble in Central America has been brewing for a long time. For the past five years the revolutionists in that country have been planning, intriguing and preparing for the overthrow of President Cabrera, and in their efforts to this end they have not failed to appeal for support to certain elements in Honduras and Salvador, working on the national jealousies for the first place among the several states forming Central America. President Cabrera has been harshly criticized by his enemies. They declare he rules with extreme despotism, that no man's life is safe under his administration, and the country morally and economically is going to the dogs, under his unwise and ill advised course.

On the other hand President Cabrera has declared this revolutionary movement to be inconsequential and that the governor would promptly put it down.

President Cabrera's term of office in fact expired in 1905. He has, however, insisted on holding office.

Cabrera's army is said to have no faith in him. The pay of the soldiers has often been in arrears. The fighting men of the republic with 56,000 able-bodied men, are drawn from the led to battle, to shoot, to charge and to be killed at the command of their officers. The army of Guatemala is in fairly good shape. There are some 7,000 professional soldiers in the republic with 56,000 able-bodied men of service age. The republic is said to have 30,000 men. It was reported that Guatemala had 50,000 men under arms near the Salvador boundary.

The revolutionists are said to have plenty of fighting men, arms and ammunition, and they doubtless have invaded the frontiers of Honduras, Salvador and Mexico during the fighting against Cabrera. They are headed by General M. L. Barrillas, a former president of the country, who has the assistance of Generals Castillo, Pineda and Toledo. Guatemala is a little larger than the state of Ohio. Its population is 60 per cent pure Indians, the remainder chiefly half castes and a small portion of pure European descent.

The trouble between Salvador and Guatemala is an outcome of the progress of the revolutionists in their efforts to oust Cabrera. They have invaded Salvadoran territory and Guatemala claims have received actual support from that government. While no actual declaration of war has been made between these two countries, a state of war practically exists. All Guatemalan citizens between 18 and 50 years of age have been called on to join the ranks, and martial law has been declared.

The statement has been made that Salvadoran regulars are fighting with the Guatemalan revolutionists, but President Escalon of Salvador has declared that his government was observing strict neutrality and had nothing to do with the revolution in Guatemala.

The revolutionists appear so far to have had the better of it. They have captured and held several towns and the movement progresses and succeeds. Their ranks are constantly being strengthened.

The army of Salvador is described as consisting of 3,000 men, and the militia of 18,000 men. In case of war military service is compulsory from 18 to 50 years of age. The area of the republic is estimated at about 8,000 square miles.

DROWNS IN BALLOON.

Butcher Makes First Ascent and Comes Down in Lake.

Council Bluffs, Ia.—Ole Jensen, a butcher, aged 22 years, on Sunday evening made a balloon ascension and a parachute jump at Lake Manawa, a resort four miles south of Council Bluffs. He came down in the lake and was drowned before help could reach him. His body was recovered. It was his first experience in ballooning.

Dowie Almost Deserted.

Chicago.—John Alexander Dowie sat in the conservatory at Shiloh house Sunday and preached to those who would listen, while his young rival, Wilbur Glen Voliva, addressed a congregation of several thousand in the tabernacle. In years past July 15 has been the grand opening of the feast of the tabernacle, which lasted during the entire week, and Zion City was visited by thousands who came to see Dowie. Neither Voliva nor Dowie in their addresses even mentioned the fact that it was "Feast Day."

ANNULS RENNES VERDICT AND VINDICATES DREYFUS

Persecution Honors of French Officer After Twelve Years of Torture and Official Are Restored to Him.

Paris.—The supreme court on Thursday announced its decision annulling the condemnation of Dreyfus without a retrial. The effect of the decision is a complete vindication of his rank in the army as though he had never been accused.

Alfred Dreyfus, a Jew, was a captain in the French army in 1893. He was a modest, unassuming man, living happily with his wife and children. Fate made him the victim of one of the greatest conspiracies developed in the history of modern Europe.

He was accused of selling to the German government the secret of a little piece of mechanism, by the disclosure of a cannon after its discharge was minimized.

Dreyfus was convicted and sentenced, first to be publicly degraded and then to be transported and imprisoned for life on Devil's Island, a barren spot off Cayenne, South America. On January 5, 1905, the first part of the sentence was carried out.

On February 9, 1905, Dreyfus reached Devil's Island, where he remained until he was brought back to France on July 1, 1899, and was placed in prison at Rennes to await his second trial. It began on August 7th. He was sentenced on September 9 to ten years' detention in a fortress on French soil. The years he had passed on Devil's Island were deducted from the sentence. President Loubet commuted the remaining years. Dreyfus, dismissed from the army, was a free man. He retired to his estates in the country, but for the last six years he has quietly but persistently worked for the vindication which he has now gained.

It may be stated that it is now generally admitted that the real traitor was one Commandant Esterhazy, a blackguard, a gambler, and a degenerate, who for some mysterious reason was shielded by every one in the conspiracy. When he could no longer be used Esterhazy was driven from France. He went to London, where he lived and died in wretched poverty after selling the secret of his treachery to a newspaper for a few shillings.

BLOODY DUEL RESULT.

Encounter Over Dreyfus Debate in Which Participant is Wounded.

Paris.—The scene of tumultuous disorder which marked the enactment of the law restoring Alfred Dreyfus to the army was followed by a bloody duel Friday in which Under Secretary of State Sarraut was dangerously wounded by the sword of M. Puginet-Conti. The duel summed the aspect of a veritable combat between the government and the opposition as M. Sarraut's seconds were Ministers Clemenceau and Thomson, while M. Puginet-Conti's seconds, M. Millevoye and General Jacques, were drawn from the elements which bitterly resisted the government's rehabilitation of Dreyfus. Sarraut is suffering from a dangerous wound in the right breast as a result of the encounter.

EXPECT TO BE PUNISHED.

Ether Mitchell and Mrs. Creffield Prepared for Death on Scaffold.

Seattle, Wash.—Fully cognizant of the punishment the law demands for the crime of murder in the first degree, Esther Mitchell declares that she had rather hang than obtain her liberty, or even immunity from the law on the grounds of insanity. "I am not insane," she insisted, "and before shooting my brother I gave all the possible results of the act the fullest consideration. I knew that I would be arrested and that the excuse for doing what I did would not be considered by the court."

Mrs. Creffield is also willing to submit to whatever punishment may be in store for her. She, too, declares that she is perfectly sane, and the only excuse she offers for her share in the killing is that she was as justified in bringing about the death of Mitchell as he was in killing her husband.

Virtue Takes a Back Seat.

Denver, Colo.—District Judge John I. Mullins in the criminal division of the district court on Friday discharged the grand jury summoned by special elisors for the purpose of investigating alleged frauds in the vote on corporation franchises at the city election May 15, and various city and county offices. The dismissal of the jurors was necessitated by the superior court of the city of Denver. William H. Gahbert of the supreme court forbidding Judge Mullins to supersede the sheriff, and call a grand jury through elisors.

After Missouri Gamblers.

Liberty, Mo.—A special grand jury here has indicted several keepers of gambling houses who have operated at the watering resort at Excelsior Springs, and the prosecuting attorney has notified Governor Folk, at whose instigation the jury was called, that there is sufficient evidence to send a number of those indicted to the penitentiary. Following the holding of the Democratic convention at Excelsior Springs May last, the existence of gambling was brought to the attention of the governor.

Cases Against Mitchell Dropped.

Portland, Ore.—Francis J. Heney, special assistant to the attorney general, has formally notified the United States district court of the death of the late Senator John H. Mitchell and on Mr. Heney's motion all pending indictments and actions against Mitchell were nolleed with the exception of the suit against Mitchell's estate to recover the $1,000 fine indicted as part of the punishment for Mitchell's having accepted remuneration for practicing before a department of the federal government.

LIKE A BUTTERFLY NET.

Quies Contrivance Used by the Filipino When He Sets Out to Capture a Mass of Fish.

An odd sort of fish catching contrivance used in the Philippine islands may be seen at the New York aquarium. It is an open work, dome shaped thing about two feet in height and two feet across in its widest part, at the bottom, made of thin strips of a native wood. The upper ends of these strips are brought closely together around a circle of wood at the top, while from there they spread out uniformly wider and wider apart like the wires in the top part of a round top bird cage. Up under these strips, about six inches below the top, is set a wooden hoop, to which each of the slats is bound, and over this hoop the slats are strung with a slight curve, to be held in shape and at uniform distances apart by a thin run around a couple of inches above their bottom ends. So that this is an open dome shaped contrivance made of slender curving vertical ribs; and in its construction it shows also workmanship. The island fishermen uses this fish catcher in catching fish much as a boy uses his hat in catching butterflies; he claps it down over such comparatively sluggish and bottom feeding fish as he can get near enough to for that purpose, and through an opening in the top of the catcher he reaches down inside of it to seize the fishes thus caught.

Excellent for Traveling.

For a light-weight traveling suit, a jacket is excellent. It does not wear dust readily, and it will stand a tremendous amount of wear. There are a few models made up with the box revers semi-fitted coat, but the majority of designs have the eton or bolero trimmed with the railings of taffeta and lace. Just now there are to be seen among the simpler street models quite a number of coats with long tailor sleeves.

HEARD ONLY IN AMERICA.

English Newspaper Criticizes Our Use of the Phrase "Say"—Its Real Meaning.

An American story in Office Window began, as many American stories begin, with "say." Now, how many English readers know the person and the tense of the American "say"? Does it stand for "tell me" or for "I say"? For the first there is the familiar French analogy, the "dis" of the perpetual question of the French child, and the "dites" of common talk in later life. But a correspondent who had for half a lifetime read the American story in this sense was obliged to change it for the vulgar and exceedingly silly and quite superfluous phrase of our own streets. For he put the matter to Americans in America, and they all assured him that "say" was nothing but "I say" further vulgarized. And yet "tell me" is a beginning that has won a man more friends than any other opening in the customs of conversation. Nothing in the world makes a new acquaintance go more favorably. —London Chronicle.

Good Excuse.

Being a thoughtful wife, she is naturally concerned for her husband's health, and when she sees him eating heartily of pie she knows very well that if you eat so much pie you will have another attack of indigestion. I can not see why you insist upon eating it when you know it keeps you constantly suffering. "I would not eat it, my angel," he answers, helping himself to more, "were it not that the last time I did so I dreamed of you." Realizing that she is witnessing one of those sublime evidences of true affection of which we sometimes read, she smiles happily upon him and is silent. —Omaha Bee.
